SPONSOR BROCHURE

Our mission

Scientific Summits is a non-profit organization with the aim to create an educational platform that summarizes the scientific content of recent uro-oncology conferences and international medical journals, as well as recent developments in medical treatments and technologies.

This platform targets and communicates to doctors, doctors in training and paramedics.

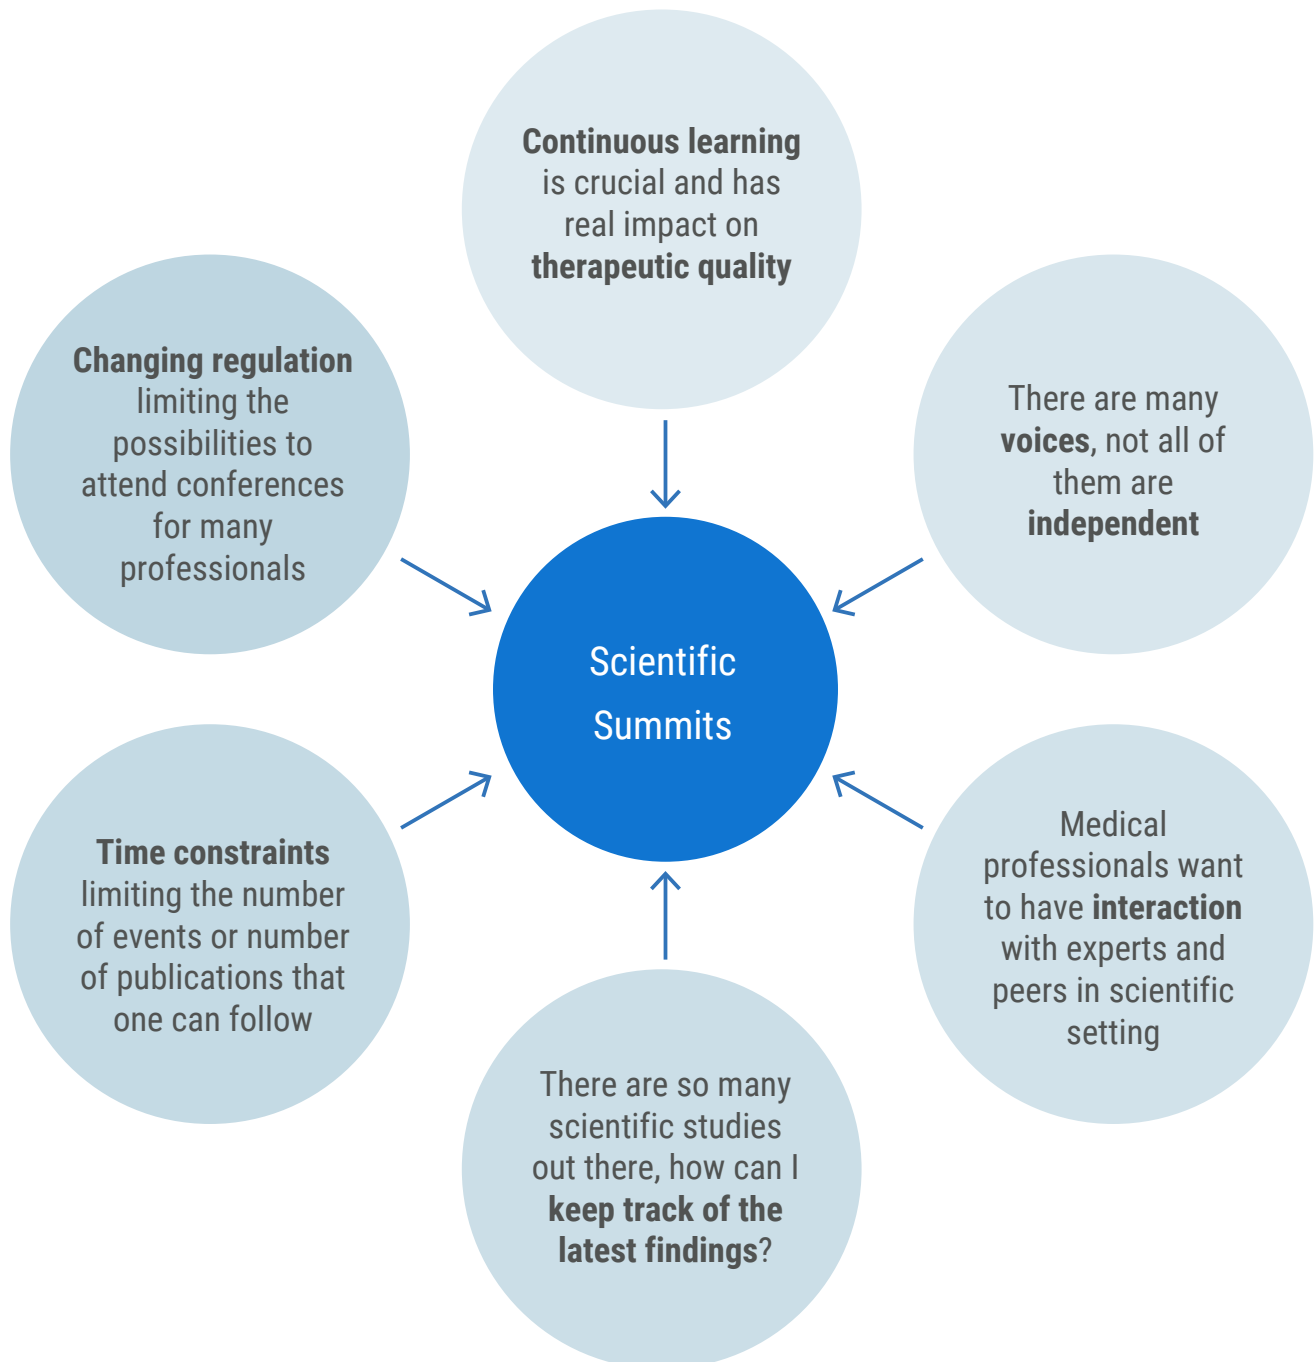

Scientific Summits wants to play a role in improving healthcare by creating an educational platform for medical professionals that will summarize and communicate the above.

Scientific Summits is needed

Scientific Summits aims to run projects in uro-oncology. The multidisciplinary platform has proven to be very successful within the urology and uro-oncology discipline.
